

Diana Simple O'Live Fitness, for extremes

O'Live Precision Throwing Attachment for structure ends - Improve your Coordination and Accuracy

The O'Live Precision Throwing Accessory is an innovative tool specifically designed to improve coordination and accuracy in functional ball or wall ball throwing. This accessory is a must-have for cross training centers and functional training areas, providing a more effective and accurate training experience.

Available in several support options, this accessory is compatible with O'Live's different models of cross-training and functional training cages, as well as with O'Live's half rack and rack options. Its versatility and adaptability ensure seamless integration into any training setup.

elevate your performance and perfect your throwing with the O'Live Precision Throwing Accessory! Ideal for those looking to take their functional training to the next level with precision and efficiency.

Product description:

The O'Live Ball Training Target provides a precise target in your training, adapting to the different needs of the center and its users. This accessory is essential for improving your ball throwing skills, offering a versatile and effective solution.

Designed to fit the end of the sky or cantilever (ES32802.00), this accessory is compatible with O'live's Functional Plus Wall and Bridge cages, ensuring a seamless integration into your training setup.

With dimensions of 24.5 x 30 cm, this target provides a clear and defined target for your throws. The overall dimensions are 24.5 x 66.5 cm, offering a suitable size for your training area. With a sleek black finish, it blends seamlessly into any training environment. Screws are included for a secure attachment system and easy installation.

Reference: ES16606.02

EAN13: -

UPC: -
